

Level-Up Your Tech Stack: How AgentSync Differs from Other Licensing Compliance Administration Systems

AgentSync's system is so one-of-a-kind that measuring it against other compliance management systems isn't just apples to oranges: it's more like apples to potatoes! These five unique features are why AgentSync stands out among all other products in the market.

01. The industry's first daily, two-way NIPR integration

- Goodbye, manual syncs – now producer licensing, appointment, and regulatory action data in your client relationship management system is up-to-date, period.
- Other up- and down-stream systems, such as legal, accounting, and document management, update with timely, accurate information as a result of seamless integrations.
- Submit license renewals or update producer info changes in just a few clicks.
- Take better advantage of Just-In-Time appointments in applicable states.

02. Tailored to your needs

- Other platforms still require multiple systems, plus emails and spreadsheets, to maintain their databases; AgentSync lets you do more with less.
- Enterprise-ready dashboards make it easy to analyze any metrics – visualize your compliance health and opportunities at a glance.
- Give your agents a fully-branded-to-you external portal for onboarding and self-service.

03. Built on Salesforce for easy integration

- AgentSync consolidates the entire workflow into one solution.
- Easy to analyze any datapoint. Reports and dashboards are 100% configurable based on your company's use case and needs.

- Our security is held to the same standards as Salesforce itself.
- AgentSync can also be used as a standalone outside of Salesforce.

04. Speed and service

- Get up and running in as little as four to six weeks.
- Your dedicated customer success (CS) team is your advocate before, during, and after implementation.
- Your CS team understands your business, not just "the business."
- AgentSync has never lost a customer.

05. Predictable costs

- Eliminate the obscure transaction fees you pay with other vendors.
- Tiered subscription stays competitive as you grow.
